

It seems that things were working in the peoples favor for once. Then the lawyers got into the act? If the 'current/previous customers' list is an issue and it must get fixed please fix for the populace not the vendors who pray on the weak constitution of the elderly and those that don't know how to either say no or hang up on High Pressure Sales People.
Please act properly.
Steve Wogoman